PROFILE

I am a passionate full-stack developer with an unending enthusiasm for solving problems! I have a deep interest in programming, excellent interpersonal skills, and proven efficiency in quickly learning and navigating new technologies. I'm able to self-direct independent tasks, as well as collaborate productively within a team. I aspire to contribute to beautifully designed applications that provide solutions to those using them.

EXPERIENCE

Oct 2013 — Oct 2016

VISUAL MERCHANDISER

- Operate and balance cash drawers with meticulous accuracy
- Floor stocking, set up floor sets, and opening/closing procedures.
- Run reports weekly to optimise store sales through tailored visual merchandising.
- Send an EOD report after each shift including pictures of projects completed that day, weekly goals, and tasks assigned to staff members.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

In addition to the skills learned at Dev Academy Aotearoa, I am broadening my knowledge of development in my spare time. I am in the process of learning these skills, I'm not a master(yet!).

- | | |
|--------------|---------------------|
| • C# | • Go |
| • Typescript | • AWS certification |

When I'm not programming, I love being outside. I am very often found on long bush walks or trying to find my latest favourite eatery. I'm naturally curious about understanding human processes - cultural diversity, economic/social systems, and neurology.
